

You need

- twine
- four sticks
- items found in nature

Make a frame by attaching the sticks together at each corner with the twine in a crisscross fashion once your frame is finished, tie a piece of the twine around one of the corners and begin wrapping it around the frame until the frame has lines of twine across it. by wrapping the twine twice around the stick helps to keep the twine taught and prevent it from sliding on the sticks. secure by knotting.